

Social evening at The Red Lion Fenny Stratford

Tuesday 3 July
All welcome

The Red Lion is by the canal lock. There is a beer garden, some canal-side seating and a small bar/room should the weather be inclement.

Although the pub does not provide food, the landlord has kindly allowed members and friends to bring their own.

It is suggested that participants might like to purchase fish and chips from the nearby Fenny Fish Bar. This is located in Aylesbury Street, 5 mins walk from the station; turn right at the station level crossing and cross the old A5 road, and the fish bar is just beyond the church on left hand side.

Coffee is available at the pub if you prefer not to drink alcohol.

We will meet from 19.00hrs. Catch the 17.40 or 18.26 from Bedford and the 18.31 from Bletchley. The return train to Bedford is at 21.04 and to Bletchley at 21.36.

Normal train fares apply, and food and drink are at members' own expense.

No need to book – just turn up.
